DETAILED ACTION

1. The ids of 7/7/05 has been considered.
2. The remarks of 6/24/05 have been considered, however a careful reading of the claims revealed the objections and rejections below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear if the "population of postage metering systems of line 5 is the same as the "population of postage metering systems" of line 4 because they're both introduced by the word "a". Further, because it is unclear if the "population..." is the same, it is unclear which population "the population" of lines 9, 11 and 14 are referring to.

Further, it is unclear what hardware is being used for the storing of the voice message.

4. Claims 15-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The phrase "the population of postage metering systems" lacks antecedent basis.

Art Unit: 3639

5. Claims 5-7, 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The phrase "and/or" makes the claims indefinite. Further, the phrase "the computer based text" lacks antecedent basis.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 8-11 are allowable.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

As per Claim 8.

The prior art of record, specifically, Schwartz et al (5,615,120) or Katikaneni et al (6,356,833) fail to disclose or fairly teach:

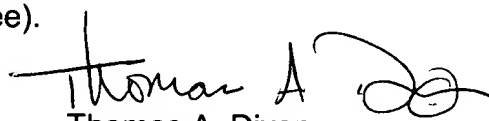

receiving an incoming telephone call at one postage metering system of the population of postage metering system;
storing a voice message associated with the telephone call; and retrieveing the voice message from another postage metering system of the population of postage metering systems.
